

TEACHING PASTOR - OPPORTUNITY

Manhattan Bible Church has an opportunity for a Teaching Pastor.

The pastor will demonstrate in word and deed, a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He will be open to ideas of others, be gregarious, compassionate, approachable, energetic and learned. The pastor needs to be a person of faith, integrity, dedication and good judgment.

The lifestyle of the pastor should be a demonstration of the Gospel, within the home, the church and the world. The pastor needs to demonstrate abilities as a preacher, pastoral care giver and administrator. It is important that the pastor have strong relational skills.

The ministry requires flexibility in meeting the needs of a diverse church membership and the larger NYC community.

Qualifications: Graduate of an accredited college; Preferred: Graduate of an American Association of Theological Schools (ATS) accredited institution.
